

Philosophy 23: Philosophy of Religion

Study Questions 2

1. What is the “wisdom of unknowing”?
2. What basic mistake do sciences typically make when trying to “know” the world? What difference does this make when trying to understand religion?
3. What is realism and anti realism?
4. What are the correspondence and coherence theories of truth.
5. What do we mean by the “logic of propositions”?
6. What is “aletheia” as opposed to the usual view of truth based on correspondence and the logic of propositions?
7. How does philosophical hermeneutics recast or dissolve the issues above in a way that opens us to understanding religion (or anything else) that these prevent?